Reflections

Erma Lee Allen Nolen, the daughter of Mary Haynes Allen and Jerry Allen was born December 22, 1926. She departed this earthly life Sunday, June 29, 2008.

She professed Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and united with Greater Enon Baptist Church. Her life was a living example of having Jesus Christ as her Lord.

Erma loved people and it was often said, "If you want to be uplifted go and visit Miss Erma". Her concern was for the well-being of her family and friends.

She was married to Archie Nolen, who preceded her in death. To this union 8 children were born. She was a homemaker and loved caring for her husband and children.

Her parents, husband Archie Nolen, daughter Shelia, brother George, sister Lonnie Dinwiddie and grandson Howard all preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her children-John Nolen, McKenzie, Mary Ann (Rev. Sherman) Dalton, Gary, IN, Reverend George (Gloria) Nolen, McKenzie, Linda (John) Holloway, California, Velma Caster, McKenzie, Linda (Aaron) McClerkin, Huntingdon, Tammie House, St. Louis, MO, honorary daughter Lucille Conor and honorary granddaughter Janet Coner; 10 grandchildren; 23 great grandchildren; one sister, Recie Haglar, California; a host of great-great grandchildren; nieces, nephews, many cousins and friends. ■

Precious Memories

For One Who Gives So Much To Others

It's not the things that can be bought that are life's richest treasure,

It's just the little heart gifts that money cannot measure…

A cheerful smile, a friendly word, a sympathetic nod

Are priceless little treasures from the storehouse of our God…

They are the things that can't be bought with silver or gold,

For thoughtfulness and kindness and love are never gold…

They are the priceless things in life for which no one can pay.

And the giver finds rich recompense in giving them away

And who on earth gives more away and does more good for others

Than understanding, kind and wise and selfless, loving mothers

Who ask no more than just the joy of helping those they love

To find in life the happiness that they are dreaming of.
